

GENERAL INFORMATION

Every precaution has been taken to insure an informative and safe visit. The number of youngsters anticipated necessitates that all concerned exercise close supervision to prevent them from wandering.

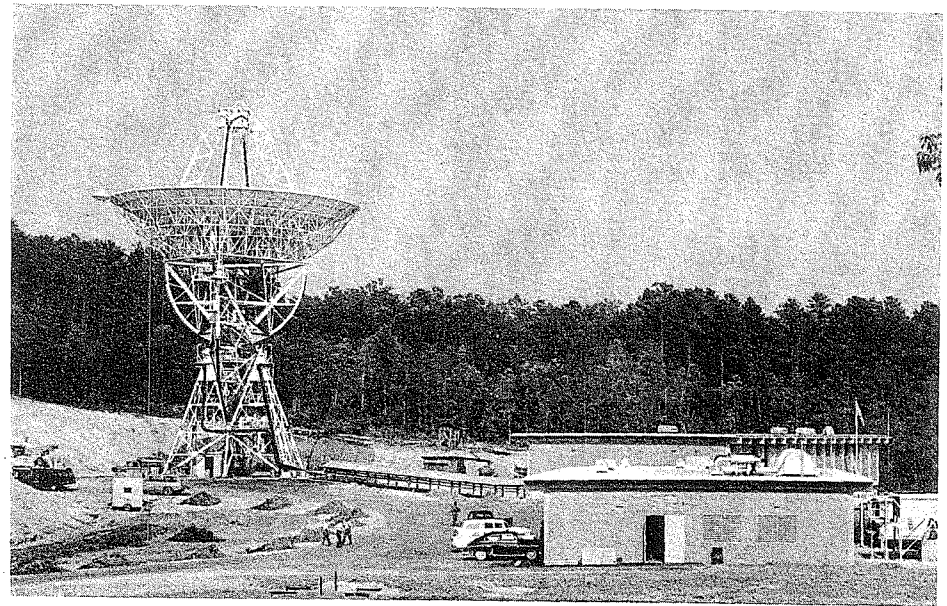

Dedication Staff will be identified by badge and will furnish any needed information.

Informational material will be distributed upon your departure.

Rain occurring during the program could force cancellation of this outdoor event. In this event proceed to the Bus Turnaround Area for shuttle bus transportation back to your car.

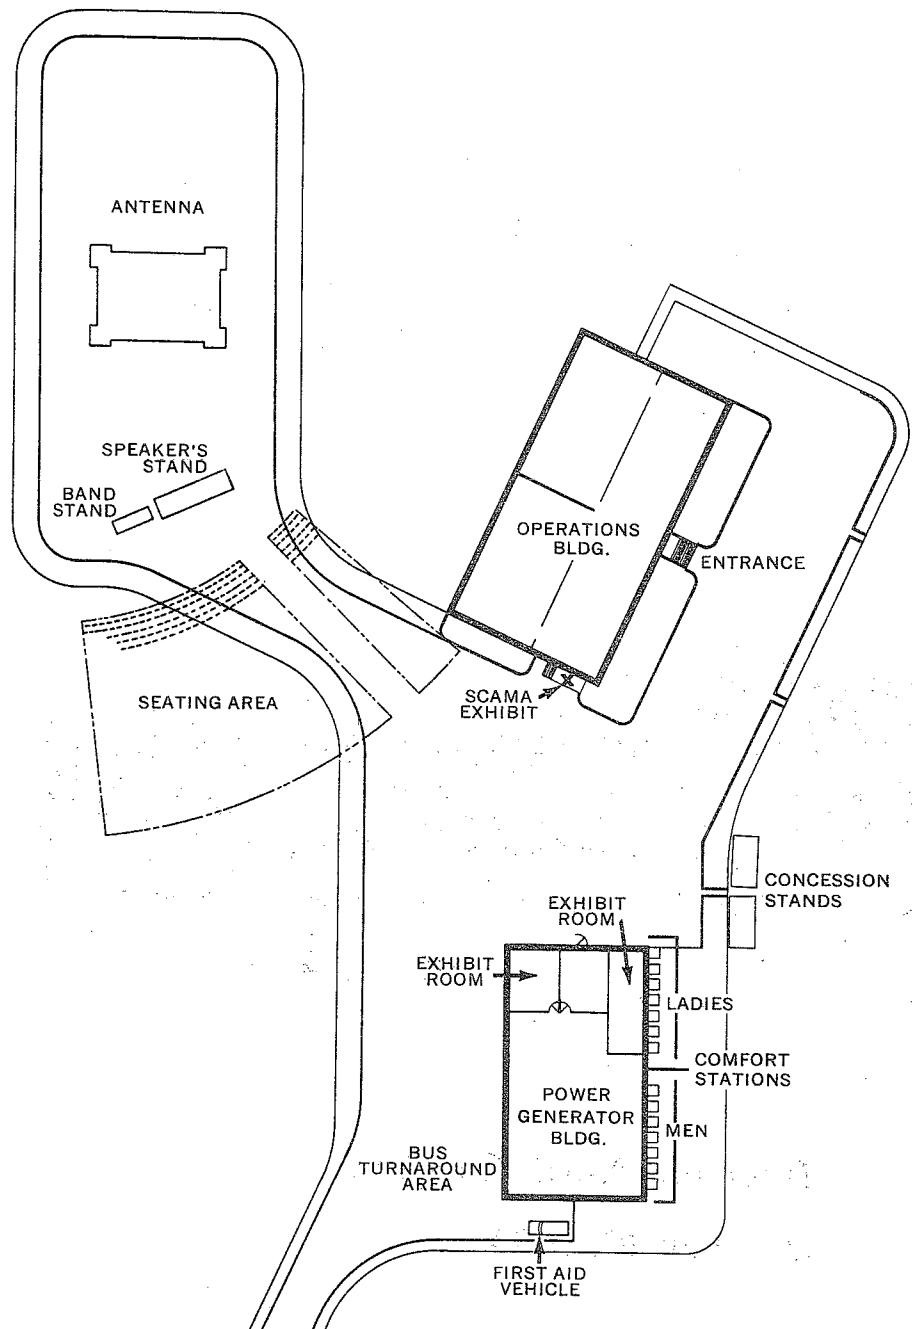

Dedication of the Rosman Satellite Tracking and Data Acquisition Facility

Rosman, North Carolina

October 26, 1963

PROGRAM

- 1:45 p.m.* Dedication Ceremony
National Anthem
Master of Ceremonies, The Honorable Roy A. Taylor, Member of Congress
Invocation by The Reverend Dr. Emmett McLarty, President of Brevard College
Introduction of Guests
Welcome by The Honorable Austin Hogsed, Mayor of Rosman
Remarks by The Honorable Sam J. Ervin, Jr., United States Senate
Remarks by The Honorable B. Everett Jordan, United States Senate
Remarks by Dr. Harry J. Goett, Director of Goddard Space Flight Center. Demonstration of space communications.
Address by Dr. George L. Simpson, Jr., Assistant Administrator for Technology Utilization and Policy Planning of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration
Address by The Honorable Terry Sanford, Governor of North Carolina
Benediction by The Reverend B. W. Thomason, Mayor of Brevard
- 3:15 p.m.* Adjourn
Tours of Site for the Public
Music by Brevard High School Band